RACING AND JUMPING ON STATEN ISLAND.

LIVELY CONTESTS WITNESSED BY 1,500 PEOPLE—SOME SLIGHT ACCIDENTS.

A series of pony races and jumping contests were given on the grounds of the Richmond County Hunt Club, on the Clove Road, near the Richmond Turnpike, Staten Island, yesterday afternoon, under the auspices of the American Pony Racing Association. The 1,500 spectators who were on the grounds enjoyed four good races and two jumping contests. The course was laid out on the turf and it required four circuits of the track to make a mile. Three grand parties and their guests attended the races and the scene on the lawn surrounding the track was made lively by their laughter.

The first race was called promptly at 2:40 p. m. and by 3 o'clock every one was homeward bound. The opening contest was for a purse of $25, for ponies fourteen hands three inches and under, to be owned and ridden by residents of Staten Island. The distance was about one-half mile in two heats. Out of eight entries only five started. They were F. T. Barber's Blitzen, ridden by his owner; K. P. Emmons's Nellie Bly, ridden by Mr. Emmons; G. F. Oettershausen's Post Boy, ridden by H. M. Hunt; M. F. Wyant's Melville E., ridden by his owner, and F. E. Baldwin's Midget, ridden by H. M. Baldwin. When one circuit of the track had been made, Post Boy gained a lead of four lengths, holding it to the end and winning pulled up. Melville E. got second place by a head.

The second contest was for the Richmond County Cup. The cup is valued at $150, to be contested for by members of the Richmond County Hunt Club for three years, open for competition to members of any recognized Hunt after November 1, 1894. This was by far the best feature of the day. F. H. Cahill's Lady, ridden by Mortimer Smith; D. Wilcock's Gamecock, ridden by J. Brown; B. Whyte's Alma, ridden by his owner; H. M. Dunn's Tour, ridden by his owner; C. D. Freeman's Shakespeare, ridden by his owner; Mrs. Freeman's Partisan, ridden by C. D. Freeman; W. B. Thomas's Pilot, ridden by Mortimer Smith; James Brown's Halma, ridden by Mr. Brown, and F. E. Clark's Royal H., ridden by Mr. Smith, were the contestants. When Mortimer Smith brought Lady up to make the final jump she bolted and threw Case Card into a complete somersault over the fence. Most of the horses refused the final high jump. The cup was finally awarded to Shakespeare, who cleared every jump in good style.

The next race was a pony race of three-quarters of a mile. The four starters were F. T. Barber's Blitzen, M. E. Wyant's Melville E. and Arthur Whyte's Little Sister. Little Sister shot to the front before a furlong had been run and leading all the way won easily. Blitzen was second.

Cosack was scratched in the fourth race, leaving only three starters, Charles Whitman's Frazzle, Arthur Whyte's Case Card and Cosack. H. M. Dunn's Tour won by two lengths. J. Hunter, who rode Tormentor, thought that the distance was three times around the track. He continued on, and Mr. Whyte on Case Card, thinking that he had made a mistake, started whipping Case Card. The pony did not like this treatment after he had won the race and he threw his rider. Mr. Whyte was badly shaken up, but received no serious injury. Tormentor got second place.

The fifth contest was the Hunters' Challenge Cup, valued at $75. The contest was open to hunters owned by members of the Richmond County Hunt Club. The cup to be given for the best performance over five hurdles five feet high. Seven horses contested. The decision was given to Tormentor, who made five clean jumps.

The second half of the first race was then run. From the start Post Boy led and won by two lengths before Melville E.

The judges of the races were Sir Frederick Cameron, Controller Theodore W. Myers and James R. Wood, and of the jumping contests Sir Frederick Cameron, Henry L. Herbert and Eugene H. Outerbridge.

Among those on the grounds were J. R. Winters with a large party, Miss Della Burns, Miss Vaughn, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Terry, of Meadowbrook; Mr. and Mrs. James R. Wood, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Selbach, Miss Van Schick, Miss May Lind, Dr. and Mrs. S. Stillwell Field, Thomas Meagher, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Whyte, Mr. and Mrs. John Schuchman, Mr. and Mrs. George Stonebridge, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Fitzpatrick, Mr. and Mrs. Howell Nichols, Dr. and Mrs. John Duryce, Francis T. Underhill and Miss Alice Robinson.

HE WAS CAUGHT SHORT ON THE RALLY.

Theophilus Steele, a member of the Consolidated Stock and Petroleum Exchange, failed to meet his clearing house balances yesterday. There were 500 shares of stocks bought in under the rule for his account, principally of Union Pacific, St. Paul and Rock Island. Mr. Steele was caught short on the rally in the market in the last two days. The difference was not heavy and Mr. Steele has till to-morrow to effect an adjustment.

A MURDERER'S WIFE WANTS AN ESTATE.

Mrs. Thomas Coady, of New-Rochelle, has gone to California to claim the estate of the late John Coady, who died in Las Vegas three years ago, leaving it, it is said, an estate valued at $50,000. John Coady was a bachelor, and his brother Thomas was his only relative. It is a question whether he is now living or dead. Mrs. Coady says that her husband is dead, and alleges that she has not seen him or heard from him in twenty years.

There are other peculiar circumstances surrounding the case. Thomas Coady had served in the British Army and also in the American Army. He finally settled with his family in New-Rochelle, and took a last named Carroll as a boarder. Coady finally became jealous of Carroll's attention to Mrs. Coady, and had feeling existed between the two men. On a certain night in August in 1870 Coady, after drinking with Carroll in a liquor shop in New-Rochelle, killed him with an axe and chopped his body up. The following morning he reported to Justice Porter that he had killed a man, but, as he was still suffering from drink,

The Justice paid no heed to what he said. Coady then disappeared, and has never been seen since. Liberal rewards were offered for his capture, but to no purpose. About two years afterward some woodchoppers found the skeleton of a man in the woods back of New-Rochelle. This was supposed to be the body of Coady. Mrs. Coady will endeavor to show that her husband is dead, so that she can get possession of the estate left by her husband's brother.

ROUGH VOYAGE OF THE POMERANIAN.
The Atlas Line steamship Pomeranian, which arrived here yesterday morning, suffered from the prevailing gales in common with all other vessels which have entered this port lately, and her twenty-eight cabin and 153 steerage passengers had rough experiences in the high seas and westerly winds. Four ventilators were smashed and other damage done on deck, but the only accident that was serious was the breaking of the engines of her engines, which necessitated her laying to from 9 a. m. to 6 p. m. on Friday, when she was about sixty-five miles east of Sandy Hook Lightship. On October 6, when the ship was four days out from Glasgow, a boy was born in all the turmoil and noise of the gale. The mother is Mrs. Elizabeth Workman. She was a second-class passenger, and her husband is Alexander Workman, a commercial traveler in Philadelphia. Captain Dalziel reports that the ship had a heavy and uncomfortable passage.

FOR A RACE AROUND CAPE HORN.
Two big clipper ships, the Benjamin F. Packard, of 2,026 tons, Captain Allen, and the William F. Babcock, of 2,029 tons, Captain Graham, started on a race around Cape Horn to San Francisco within a few hours of each other on Friday. The Babcock passed Sandy Hook at 8:45 a. m. and the Packard passed at 3:47 p. m. Both ships are handsome vessels and both were built in Bath, Me. The voyage under favorable conditions will take about eighty days, though a record of seventy-five days from Boston has been established.

A CITIZEN IN AN AWKWARD DILEMMA.
Michael McDonnell, who alleges that he is an American citizen, is being detained at the Barre Office by order of General O'Brien, who refuses to allow him to enter this country without producing papers to prove his statement. This man says he can do if he is allowed to look for his wife, who has them. He arrived in the steerage of the Tonic last Wednesday. He says that he came here from Wales about ten years ago, and that he took out his first papers two and one-half years ago. He has three children, all born here, the youngest being two years old. A little over a year ago he went back to Wales, as he had received the offer of a good job there. He left his family at No. 411 East One-hundred-and-twenty-fourth St. Recently he secured a place here, and therefore returned to America.

He has written to his wife but no answer has yet been received, and he thinks the letter may have been astray, or she may have moved. Now he would like to look for her, and he offers to deposit $4 with the large officials as security for his return, if they will let him look for his wife, so he can get his papers, and prove his citizenship. But last night he was still virtually a prisoner.
